GRILL FLAME

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

This Joint Service three year GRILL FLAME effort is intended to implement a comprehensive effort designated from the outset to determine the operational parameters and usefulness of certain elements of psychoenergetics and assess the threat these phenomena pose to the national security. The DOD GRILL FLAME effort will include, but not be limited to, external assistance contracts. It is recognized that each participant reserves the right to discontinue participation in this program at the end of each fiscal year.

The GRILL FLAME Committee will seek throughout the first year, and continually during follow on years, to examine capabilities in RV and PK developed by potential contractors and unanimously agree to contract with the contractors who can best meet the requirements of the DOD at the least possible cost.

a. The DIA will:

- (1) Issue Joint Service contracts to accomplish the required external support.
- (2) Chair the GRILL FLAME Committee and provide, in coordination ~~and concurrence~~ with committee members, regular progress reports to appropriate high level decisionmakers.
- (3) Provide the primary contract monitor to be located where he/she can best monitor all Joint Service contracts.

b. The participants (DIA, Air Force, Army) will:

(1) Contribute to the development of contract goals, unanimously agree to the contract goals, and outline specific requirements, tasks, and priorities to be accomplished by the Joint Service contracts.

(2) MIPR funds to DIA for the first year of the Joint Service contracts.

(3) Host the quarterly GRILL FLAME Committee meetings on a rotating basis. The first quarter meeting by Air Force, the second by Army, the third by DIA.

(4) Provide ORV monitors and viewer to support the programs when appropriate.

(5) Total Program dollar efforts for FY 81 are as follows:

(a) Army/INSCOM: $150K

(b) USAF: $150K

(c) DIA: $150K

c. The GRILL FLAME Committee will:

(1) Be composed of members from DIA, Army and Air Force and will consist of two voting members from DIA and each Service department.

(2) Review the DIA and Service requirements for psychoenergetics and incorporate them into the contract work statements, thereby ensuring that the program will meet the requirements of each contributor.

(3) Prepare all final GRILL FLAME contracts and determine priorities.

(4) Provide continual review of all GRILL FLAME contractual matters, to include, when appropriate, review by cleared parties both within and outside the DOD.

(5) During the quarterly meetings, review and critique past work and revise, as needed, the next quarter's work.

(6) Will determine the allocation of MIPR'd funds amongst specific contractual tasks.

(7) Provide scientific and technical expertise needed to guide the contractual investigation.

(8) Serves as an advisory group to DIA on collection priorities for application of ORV techniques to real targets.

d. The primary contract monitor will:

(1) Be cognizant of all GRILL FLAME Joint Service contracts.

(2) Serve as an interface between the Committee and all contractors.

(3) Ensure that all raw data produced by the contractors is shared by all the participants.

(4) In coordination and concurrence with the Committee, relay guidance to the contractors.

(5) Report contract results to GRILL FLAME Committee.

(6) Ensure research goals are met.

(7) Be responsive to all inquiries by participants as to the activities and progress being made by the contractors.

(8) Be responsive to all inquiries by other DOD or governmental agencies on the status of the contract research in keeping with established security guidelines and approval of the Committee.
